DETAILED ACTION

Elections

1. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is required to elect a species from each of the following 5 species election requirements. Applicant is cautioned that election of a specific compound that does not have specific written basis as filed may be determined to be New Matter.

First Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect either embodiments having no specified release formulation or a specified release formulation for the particles. If an embodiment having a particular release formulation for the particles is elected, applicant is further required to elect from those release formulations listed in claims 5 through 10 or a particle formulation not listed in claims 5 through 10.

Second Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect either embodiments with no specified dosage form or a specified dosage form. If a particular dosage form is elected, applicant is further required to elect a dosage form from those listed in claims 11 through 13 or a dosage form not listed in claims 11 through 13.

Third Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect either embodiments with no specific milnacipran side effect or a specific milnacipran side effect that with diminished incidence or and reduced intensity. If a side effect is elected, applicant is further required to elect a side effect from those listed in claims 14 through 16 or a side effect not listed in claims 14 through 16.

Fourth Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect the embodiments with either the presence or absence of additional active ingredient(s). If their presence is elected, applicant is further required to elect the additional active ingredients from those listed in claim 20 or an active ingredient not listed in claim 20.

Fifth Species Election Requirement

Applicant is required to elect the enantiomeric composition embodiment of the milnacipran from those listed in claims 23 – 26 or an enantiomeric composition not listed in claims 23 – 26.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 1609

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
